Who is providing this notice?

RUSSELL COUNTRY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

What we do

How does Russell Country FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Russell Country FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or provide your income information
- provide us your contact info or your employment history
- provide us your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
